

Angela Brown

I'd like to introduce myself to you. My name is Angela Brown. Like many of you, I also earned my Eagle wings completing course work for my Master of Science in Communication Studies degree this past spring.

There are more than 72,000 Eagle alumni worldwide, 27,000 of whom live abroad or outside Washington state. In the next issue of Perspective, we will showcase where our alumni live all around the world, so you can see for yourself how far we have all flown. We look to all of our alumni to continue the tradition of providing mentorship and support to those who will follow in our footsteps.

We understand that you out-of-staters can't make it back to Cheney as often as you might like to enjoy your Eaglehood and give of your time and talents. Happily, that's where technology can be a true friend. Stay connected by subscribing on your alumni website to receive the monthly electronic newsletter, add your business card to the online business directory so you can network with fellow alums, send an e-mail to let us know how you're doing, and share with us the successes you are experiencing. And, if you would care to make a donation, it's now convenient to do so online.

The EWU Alumni Association is branching out. Alums in Arizona, Nevada, Oregon and Washington, D.C. will be hosting events in their states this year. There are new alumni chapters beginning in the nation's capital, the Tri-Cities and Puget Sound area. Who knows — the next one might be in your own neighborhood, particularly if you take an active role in making it happen. (Contact us; we'll be glad to help!)

And, if you are able to come our way, we invite you to renew your Eagle Spirit at Homecoming October 18-19 and at the Governor's Cup November 15-16 celebrations. You're always welcome at your alma mater.
