

InMemoriam

Glendale Ariz. with his wife, Rilla.Weitz '70.

Memoriam Corrections

In the Winter 2003 issue, Bruce Shadduck '67, was incorrectly identified as deceased. We apologize for the error! Bruce will turn 61 this fall and is enjoying retirement in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Also in that issue, EWU alumna Bertha Graber '27 was listed as deceased, based on erroneous information we received. We are happy to report that Bertha is alive and well and living in Richland, Wash.

90s ... 80s

'83 Barbara Peterson, BAE reading, passed away August 1, 2003, at the age of 58. Barbara taught in Spokane's Mead School District.

70s

'77 & '73 Jon Yerxa, MA public administration, and BA history, died July 3, 2003. Jon was the auditor for nine years in Adams County Wash.; he also worked for the Department of Education in Richland, Wash., for the past 11 years. Jon was a resident of Wenatchee.

'74 Alan Rounds, BA mathematics, passed away March 13, 2003. Alan taught at Sunnyside High School in Sunnyside, Wash., and also at Heritage College in Yakima, Wash.

'70 David T. Johnson, BA English, died January 16, 2003. David was a retired high school teacher from the Medical Lake School District, Medical Lake, Wash.

60s

'65 & '60 Beverly Ketel, MA education and BAE mathematics, died June 1, 2003. Beverly taught in the cities of Kennewick and Pasco, Wash., before retiring and moving to Ocean Park, Wash., in 1982.

'64 Melvin Hendrickson Jr., BA social science, passed away August 29, 2002. While attending EWU he was active with the R.O.T.C. and the EWU vocal group called "The Collegians." Mel taught vocal music and history in various places in Washington and Montana.

'60 Jennie Loomer, BA English, passed away June 6, 2002. Jennie was a retired teacher with the San Lorenzo Unified School District in San Lorenzo, Calif.

50s

'60, '58, '37, & '28 Glenna Taylor, teaching certification, BA education, and two-year teaching certificate, died May 29, 2003. In 1937, Glenna was awarded a "Lifetime Teaching Certificate" from her alma mater. She taught for 43 years and was a resident of Pasco, Wash.

'51 Martha (Long) Blain, BA education, passed away November 4, 2002. Martha taught kindergarten in the Cheney School District from 1951-1952. In 1976, she retired from the Issaquah School District, where she had taught first grade. She lived in Walla Walla, Wash., with her husband Les.

'50 Esther (Woodyard) Day, BA education, passed away March 29, 2003 at the age of 92. Esther taught for many years in Pasco, Wash., and was a resident of San Jose, Calif.

'50 William Oates, BA sociology, died March 8, 2003. William was a World War II and Korean War veteran. He was a retired schoolteacher from Rathdrum, Idaho.

40s

'41 Myron Weitz, BA social science, passed away March 18, 2003, at the age of 84. He was living in