Grading & Evaluation
1. Total hours logged will account for 50% of the student’s grade. Graded assignments will account for 50%. 20 logged hours are required to receive full points. A 2.0 is required to pass the course.
2. Assignments will be posted two weeks prior to the due date.
3. Assignments submitted late will receive a grade deduction penalty.
4. First-time students will not be allowed to log hours until the Climb Time Introduction on Canvas is completed.
5. All students must sign and complete a Syllabus and Par-Q to begin logging hours. Students will not be enrolled in the class at the kiosk until both documents have been completed.
6. Incomplete grades are not given for PHED 135 for any reason.
7. If student is enrolled in both PHED 135 and any other academic climbing course, hours logged for other classes may not be counted for Climb Time hours.
8. Climb Time students may count Wall hours that are logged during non-academic training such as belay certification class or lead climbing class.
9. Cumulative hours will be updated periodically throughout the quarter.

Logged Hours
In order to receive credit for logging hours the following criteria must be met:
- The climbing session must last a minimum of 30 minutes.
- Students are allowed a maximum of 2 hours per day.
- Students are allowed a maximum of 6 hours per week. A “week” begins on Monday and ends on Sunday.
- It is the student’s responsibility to track visit time and ensure log in/outs are successful.
