GRADUATE NONRESIDENT GRADUATE TUITION WAIVER SCHOLARSHIPS: REQUIREMENTS AND INFORMATION, 2012–2013

All students who accept this offer are required to:

- Be fully admitted to and remain in good academic standing in a graduate degree program
- Register for and complete at least 10 credits per quarter
- Achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.50 in all course work since admission to Graduate Studies at Eastern as determined at the close of the academic year

Recipients of this award are not eligible for a graduate service appointment as a graduate assistant, graduate associate or graduate instructor, but they may be employed on campus and may apply for other university and program scholarships.

This award is for the 2012–2013 academic year or a portion of that period only and is contingent upon the financial status of the University.

This award is for approximately $2,733 per quarter or $8,199 for the academic year, which consists of fall, winter and spring quarters. Tuition for nonresident graduate students for 2012–2013 is approximately $7,483.67 per quarter or $22,451 for the academic year. The NRTS waiver, identified on student financial accounts as “Graduate Discount,” may be used only to defray actual tuition charges and may not be received as positive funds by students whose tuition is paid by an external organization. Wavier recipients are responsible for any applicable course fees and mandatory university fees. The waiver does not apply to any self-support programs or independent learning/ correspondence courses. No university service is required for this award.

Graduate students registered for at least 10 credits are considered full-time. To register for more than 18, students must have the prior written approval of their program director or advisor and their department chair. Students registered for more than 18 credits in a term incur per-credit tuition charges that are not covered by this award.

Graduate students registered for at least 10 credits are considered full-time. To register for more than 18, students must have the prior written approval of their program director or advisor and their department chair. Students registered for more than 18 credits in a term incur per-credit tuition charges that are not covered by this award.

These awards are for nonresident students only. Nonresident recipients from within the U.S. are strongly encouraged to establish Washington residency whenever feasible. Detailed information establishing residency is available from the residency coordinator in the Records and Registration Office, 201 Sutton Hall, Cheney, WA 99004, 509.359.6586. Nonresidents may apply for residency by filing the appropriate forms with this office.

Washington residency requirements must be satisfied for a period of at least 12 consecutive months before the first term that a student is considered a resident for tuition purposes. Resident tuition for is significantly less than even the net charge of nonresident tuition combined with this waiver award. Documentation of residency requires financial independence and a valid Washington driver’s license, motor vehicle registration, voter registration card, mortgage or rental agreement and a bank account statement. A student who moves to Washington to begin a graduate program must acquire all of the documents listed above before the start of the first term and must meet all other requirements in order to establish residency for the second year of the program.

Resignation of a nonresident graduate tuition waiver scholarship must be submitted in writing to Dr. Ron Dalla, Vice Provost, Graduate Education and Research, 206 Showalter Hall, Cheney, WA 99004, rdalla@ewu.edu. Repayment of the award may be required of anyone who does not fulfill the terms as stated above or who fails to provide timely notification of resignation. Recipients who withdraw from their academic program resign from this award, and they may be required to repay all or part of the award.

Revised 8/1/12