Instructions for Completing the EWU Women’s and Gender Studies Affiliated Faculty Agreement:

Faculty will indicate the five-year period for WGS affiliated faculty on the Agreement Form in the first sentence. For example: Fall 2016-Spring 2021.

Faculty members will compete at least two of the items on the template designating how they will satisfy two of the four criteria listed on the application by filling in the blanks under those criteria on the agreement. Faculty may omit those paragraphs that are not relevant to their agreement. *Faculty only need to complete the fourth item referring to other criteria or activities approved by the WGS program committee if they do not satisfy at least two of the first three criteria listed.

The four possible criteria are:

1) Teaching or co-teaching one or more courses cross-listed with Women’s and Gender Studies at least once every three years at EWU.

2) Regular participation in Women’s and Gender Studies committees and/or curriculum development in Women’s and Gender Studies at EWU at least five quarters within the five-year agreement period.

3) Engaging in scholarly research on women, Women’s and Gender Studies, women’s issues, gender, sexuality, feminism, feminist theory or the advancement of women in their discipline or profession.

4) Other criteria as determined by the faculty member and director of Women’s and Gender Studies, pending approval of the Women’s and Gender Studies program committee.

The agreement and application are subject to approval by the Women’s and Gender Studies program committee and the WGS director. If the Women’s and Gender Studies affiliated faculty application and agreement or renewal are approved, the faculty member will be notified and will then obtain the signature of their department chair and return the signed agreement to the Women’s and Gender Studies office.
